

Press Release

25th OAG Airline of the Year Award

Air Mauritius nominated in the 'Best Airline Based in Africa' category

Air Mauritius was nominated in the 'Best Airline Based in Africa' category at the 25th OAG (Official Airline Guide) Airline of the Year Awards that were held on Tuesday 17 April at The Landmark in London. The ceremony was honoured by the presence of HRH The Princess Royal (Princess Anne).

The other nominees in the 'Best Airline Based in Africa' category were South African Airways, Egyptair and Kenya Airways. South African Airways picked up the award.

The OAG awards recognize and celebrate the achievements of airlines and airports around the globe. The award is a specially commissioned bronze figure called "Spirit of Flight". These awards are based on votes polled from a worldwide audience of business travelers who subscribe to OAG travel information and planning products.

Manoj R K Ujoodha, Chief Executive Officer of Air Mauritius says "We are delighted with our nomination at the OAG Airline of the Year award. It also confirms our position as a leading airline in Africa. I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate the team for this achievement and hope that the reforms we have undertaken will transform the airline into a more performing airline and take us to greater heights".

OAG is a global flight information and data solutions company with offices in Europe, the Americas and Asia. It provides data, marketing and solutions to the corporate, commercial aviation and cargo sectors.

11 May 2007

Air Mauritius is the national carrier of the Republic of Mauritius in the Indian Ocean. Created in 1967, it currently operates a fleet of five Airbus A340-300, two A340-300E, two A319 and two ATR 72's. Air Mauritius presently flies to twenty six destinations in Europe, Asia, Australia and Africa.

Communications and Corporate Affairs -3rd. Floor, Air Mauritius Centre
John F Kennedy Street, Port Louis
Republic of Mauritius
Tel: +230 207 73 61/2