CHANGI AIRLINE AWARDS 2017

Air Mauritius – One of the Nominees for Best Airline Marketing Award

Air Mauritius is one of the nominees for Best Airline Marketing Award for the upcoming 12th edition of the Changi Airline Awards 2017 to be held in Singapore on the 27th of April 2017.

The final award winner for this category will be based on audience voting during the event. A video show reel of each nominated airline's marketing efforts will be shown during the event, after which, the audience will vote for their winner.

Raja Buton, Officer in Charge stated "We are delighted to be nominated for such an Award at such a prestigious event. It is a welcome and timely recognition of the intensity and quality of our efforts to promote the Asia-Singapore-Mauritius-Africa corridor".

Changi Airport is one of the most vibrant hubs in the world and a major one in Asia. Over 100 airlines operate from Changi to 320 destinations in 80 countries. In 2016, 58.7 million passengers travelled through the leading airport.

Air Mauritius currently operates three flights per week to Changi escalating to four frequencies during peak periods. The fourth frequency will be operated permanently as from end of October this year and a fifth frequency is planned for next year hence providing for adequate capacity to fuel growth.
